COMMISSION SCHEDULE

● Your share of the pie

You work hard for your clients. They—and we—appreciate your effort to put security and peace of mind into their hands. Since your dedication helps drive the financial success of our company, we believe that we owe you. That's why we developed these competitive commission rates for producers who are licensed and appointed with LifeMap. They're just one way to show you how much we appreciate you and the work you do.

APPRECIATION FOR EXCELLENCE

These are the commission rates we pay to producers licensed and appointed with LifeMap. They're designed to provide compelling incentives for your sales efforts. In many instances we also offer higher commissions when participation is strong.
